

FACTS & FIGURES 2017

8

COMPONENTS

AIWW Conference, Leaders Fora, Aquatech Exhibition, Young Water Professionals programme, Sarphati Sanitation Awards, Excursions, Side Events and a Public event.

50% INTERNATIONAL VISITORS

94 NATIONALITIES REPRESENTED AT THE AIWW CONFERENCE
VISITORS FROM 140 COUNTRIES AT THE AQUATECH EXHIBITION
40 OFFICIAL COUNTRY DELEGATIONS

260

LEADERS ATTENDED
THE 3 LEADERS FORA
ON CITIES, UTILITIES
AND INDUSTRIES

AIWW
CONFERENCE ATTRACTED

1,248

DELEGATES

13%
INCREASE COMPARED TO 2015

3

PRESTIGIOUS INTERNATIONAL WATER PRIZES:

- Sarphati Lifetime Achievement Award
- Sarphati Young Entrepreneurs Award
- Aquatech Innovation Award

AIWW
2017 WAS THE

4th

EDITION OF THIS BIENNIAL EVENT

233 conference
delegates visited one of the 9

EXCURSIONS.

AQUATECH
EXHIBITION REACHED

20,490

VISITORS AND WELCOMED

928

EXHIBITORS

233 INTERNATIONAL
SPEAKERS AT THE AIWW
CONFERENCE IN 9 SOLUTION
WORKSHOPS AND 17 CASE SESSIONS

On 4 themes: • Institutional transition and governance • Water efficiency and value • Innovative water system implementations • Water management and resilience

9 AMSTERDAM AGREEMENTS WERE SIGNED

Leading companies, institutes and authorities in the international water sector jointly collaborate on a wide range of challenging issues on the global water agenda. Involving over 65 companies.

1. Human Cities Coalition
2. Berlin Wasserbetriebe and waternet
3. Blue Deal: safe water for 20 million people
4. FMO – NWP: develop and finance international water initiatives
5. Water in the Circular Economy' (WiCE)
6. Living with the sea
7. Allied Waters, AquaMinerals and KWR: Upscale water resource recovery
8. NYC Environmental Protection and Waternet
9. HOFOR Copenhagen and Waternet